CHRIST THE SERVANT
LUTHERAN CHURCH
821 S. GREENVILLE AVE.
JUNE 26-30
6-8:30 PM

GOD MADE YOU
FOR A REASON.

Go hear our Director of Music & Organist Jordan Smith perform in the SMU Organ Studio Pre-Convention Recital on Sunday, June 11 at 7:30 pm!

Jordan will perform with seven other students in an eclectic program on the mighty Fisk pipe organ in Caruth Auditorium on SMU campus. This recital is one of several pre-convention events to the Southwest American Guild of Organists Regional Convention, which will take place in Dallas June 12-15. Other events free and open to the public can be found elsewhere in the newsletter.

The recital will take place in Caruth Auditorium which is inside Meadows School of the Arts building. Parking is available in the lot south of the building.

Thanks to Marilyn Lutz and Linda Federle for completing the monumental task (5 years in the making!) of re-organizing the entire music library and changing all files from manila folders to music storage boxes. Our music library is now much more organized and efficient thanks to Marilyn and Linda!

News from Troop 79:

May 27 – Alex Hanfland's Eagle Project to set up a second flagpole for Christ the Servant has begun. The second phase of the installation is tentatively scheduled for Thursday, June 8. The second flagpole will display the Texas state flag.

For upcoming Christ the Servant events, check out the calendar on our website!
